GRAFTON INDICTED JURY GETS GASE ON BIGAMY CHARGE; AGAINST NURSE WARRANT ISSUED

May Have Had 6 Wives, Inquiry Reveals.

ANOTHER FOUND HERE, HER SANITY IS ISSUE

fore He Married Peggy Davis, Follies Girl.

An indictment charging bigam was handed up to Supreme Cour Justice Finch to-day by the Gran-Jury which has been considering the afleged matrimonial ventures Joseph Donald Grafton, son of wealthy Pittsburgh merchant. Thes forays into the field of matrimony and alleged to have been so frequent that Grafton's brother has lost count, satisfying himself with saying the indicted man was married "four, five or six times."

A bench warrant was issued to the arrest of the alleged bigamist. I is not known where Grafton has been staying recently.

What seems to have been a thin attempt at matrimony-preceding th two of which record has apparently been established so far-was un covered in the Marriage License Buyeau here to-day. A license was ssued Feb. 1, 1921, which antedate the other two by ten months.

Mrs. Capitola Laird, mother Peggy Davis, the "Follies" girl, yesterday presented evidence to Distric Attorney Banton tending to show that Genfton had married Ellen Curley McIntyre in Youngstown, O., Nov. 23, 1921, and then came on to New Fork and married the actress Dec. 10.

The license found to-day was issue Edward W. Hart, Clerk of th Luvinge License Bureau, on Feb. 1. 121, to be used that day. The provincince bridegroom gave his name as Jeseph Evans Grafton, forty-six, as advertising writer, of No. 336 Wes 15th Street, The girl's name was Charlotte Goode, twenty-three, of No. 295 Lebanon Street, Maiden, Mass.

Mr. Grafton declared he had been orn in Clare, Ireland, his father was George R, and his mother Ida Evans Grafton. This, he said, was his second marriage, his first wife, "Lotta Faust"—the name is indistinct and may have been Ganst—was dead. Miss Goode had never been married, she said. She was born in Cleveland and her father was Joseph C. Goode. 11 s understood that Miss Goode was an actress known as "Polly Lorayne." This may be the chorus girl whon both Peggy Davis's mother and Mrs Ellen Curley McIntyre-Grafton are to make out a case against this de seeking. The Youngstown bride is said to be in a sanitarium at No. 156 West 74th Street as a result of a nervous breakdown induced by the emplications which have arisen. Both the Youngstown and New York brides made formal complaint life, the defendant broke into me against Grafton yesterday to Assistant District Attorney Murphy, who mmediately went before the Grand Jury with the case. Ellen McIntrye referred to by him as wife No. 1, is Pittsburgh girl who met "Den," as CABINET DEFENDS reafton is called, while she was emdayed by his brother, David R.
